

Application Guidelines for Hokkaido Summer Institute (HSI) 2019

Hokkaido University (HU) accepts applications from students who wish to take courses in the Hokkaido Summer Institute (HSI) program. As there is no limit to the number of courses students can take, they are able to combine courses according to their major and interests. They will be admitted as special auditors based on the evaluation of application documents by relevant course supervisors. Enrollment periods are designated for individual courses. Students who pass the course examinations will be awarded credits for the courses.

*The information concerning application and courses are subject to change. Please make sure to check the latest information on the website of HSI 2019.

- Insurance

Program participants must take out travel insurance to cover possible accidents, injuries, illnesses or other incidents irrespective of their period of stay. Hokkaido University is not responsible for any unforeseen contingencies in which they may be involved. As such, they must follow the necessary procedures prior to departure from their country. Their insurance must cover death and medical care expenses due to sickness as well as accidental injury. Personal liability also must be covered by the insurance in the event that result in injury or property damage that they are held legally responsible for.

7. Points to Note

1) Students who fail to confirm their intent to enroll and/or to pay tuition fees by the designated deadline are deemed as having decided not to enroll in the program and therefore cannot take courses.

2) Students who decide to cancel all or part of courses after submitting application should use the Inquiry Form to let the Hokkaido Summer Institute Managing Section know of the decision and the related circumstances. Please note that if students cancel their enrollment in the program, tuition fees and dormitory fees that have already been paid are not refundable under any circumstances, except in the event that the program is cancelled for any reason by HU.

3) Students generally cannot add the courses after submitting application. They should consider their course selections carefully before submitting application.

4) Students whose admission to the Hokkaido Summer Institute is confirmed may be contacted by relevant course instructors before classes start.

5) Each course has a designated level. Before submitting application, students should check in the table below which level's courses they can take:

	Undergraduate students	Master's students	Ph.D. students
Undergraduate level	Applicable	—	—
Master's level	—	Applicable	Applicable
Ph.D. level	—	—	Applicable
